Dear Sir:

I am glad to know that the copy of records reached you safely, - I rec'd. the Quarterly Tr. many thanks for same. I think I copied marriages & Baptisms up to 1800 for Mr. Bailey - the work was done some time or three years ago and I am not sure. Deaths I have never copied at all. There is no Abington town. - Abington being a small parish in the western part of town of Pomfret. I don't know anything about Pomfret town records. Louis^{Sr} Hair said you - don't know clerk now and could give you information in regard to them. His address is Pomfret Centre, Conn.

I will copy for you as soon as I can but have some business copying engaged - all I can do this week, I think. I will begin with the deaths, if I get a chance before I hear from you again.
Then please tell me if you want the marriages and the rest of the baptisms, as long as Mr. Bailey has them already. You say you only want those not likely to be used elsewhere, - good.
I don't know what he was with them, but - presumably he had some object in view or he would not have been having them copied.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir;-

I have access to the old records of the Abington Cong'l. Church, founded in 1753, and should be pleased to furnish you with copies of such portions as you desire, at the rate of 25cts. per typewritten page, this size. The book contains, beside the usual records of business meetings, councils, &c, a record of marriages, 1753-1777, 1783-1825, 1828-1836, 1852-1866, 1876-1880. Baptisms, 1753-1778, 1783-1896. Persons dismissed, 1783-1896. Rec'd. from other churches, 1783 to date. Allowed to renew covenant, 1753-1777. Deaths, 1783-1891, the last few years only deaths of church members are noted, but the record in early years is very full. Persons admitted to full communion, 1753-1778, 1783-1858.

I enclose stamp for your reply.

Yours truly,
R.F.A. Williams.

Dear Sir.-

Yours of Nov. 9 - at hand. I should very much like to have the Comm. Quarterly, - I had it for '96 and enjoyed it immensely. Could you also get for me a copy of the first vol. if it is re-printed? Can you wait for the records till after Thanksgiving? I am exceedingly busy now - at the time I wrote you before, I had no pressing engagements. The records you desire will be a matter of some twenty pages, I think; of course cannot tell exactly till typewritten. Dear Mr. Eadley Thomas:

I am afraid from your letter, that you think I ask too much for my work. - I have copied from the old record but once before and then for a gentleman who was, as you are, a stranger to me. He fixed his own price and I did not think he would be apt to pay me any more than the usual price for such work, so I thought my price to you was right. If I had plenty of time and money, I would be glad to copy the whole for you for nothing, for I enjoy delving in the old records but circumstances force me to keep busy in other ways. I am glad to have the same quantity for this work, as otherwise I should be obliged to go without it this year. I hope the enclosed sheets will be of use to you and shall be glad to copy more for you, if you desire it, at some future time. About that Bandier Cordell - we tried to mist the scrawl into Barclay and Bamaby, but it refused to be either. a note of the Proceedings of the ch - reads as follows 1753-"1757 - May ye 29 voted by y^e Ch^r unanimous that the (erasure) child of (erasure) Zerriah Borden (She being an idiot) should be admitted to Baptism on the account of its natural & Religious Relations to its Grandparents." I suppose this ^{note} refers to that child, as there is no other Boddell child referred to its grandparents. 1754

Capitals run riot all through and the spelling is original to a degree. But all these little peculiarities are doubtless much more familiar to you than to me.
Hoping that my work will be satisfactory to you. I am very truly yours.

R. F. A. Williams.
